VOLUME 35

ISSUE 9

September 2013

September meeting:

Our September meeting will be held on September 26, 2013 at 7 pm. This month we will meet at the Clinton Public Library, 118 S. Hicks Street, Clinton TN. Our featured speaker will be Fred Brown, Retired Senior Writer for the Knoxville News Sentinel. Fred will be discussing the mine disasters from the early 1900s and the sharing stories of the Camp family that owned and operated the Fraterville mines.

In addition, we will be nominating candidates for our 2014 officers. Election of 2014 officers will be held at our October meeting.

The Clinton Public Library officially closes at 7 pm. The meeting room is located at the south end of the building. If you arrive after 7 and the main doors are locked, knock on the door at the south end of the building and one of our members will let you in.

Check our website or facebook page for updated information.

Queries: (continued)

Gadson (from our website)

Trying to find Emma Latham married to James D Gadson . They lived in Anderson County possibly in Gadson Town. They lived in rural Anderson County and had several children. Thank you Deborah Rollins email drrollins2@verizon.net

Cook (from our facebook page)

Below are photographs of the Cook family provided by James Blakeney. They are his great great grandparents James Madison Cook wife Nancy Luvane Hutson they are both buried in Clinch River BC cemetery. I don't know which ones they are. Also, there daughter (his great grandmother) Lucinda Cook (Jarnigan) is in this picture but don't know which one she is.

Names are possibly Lonzo, Ozie, and one of the men is possibly one they always called Uncle Frank. Kinda stuck with this one and thought you might could help. Also on back of picture it gives and location in Coal Creek does anyone know where in Lake City this was taken? Susie Bullock (please contact Susie on our facebook page, or email pghs@att.net)
