April 2001

Welcome to the first Pellissippi Genealogical & Historical Society e-newsletter. If you have received this newsletter in error, or if you are receiving 2 copies, please email me at pghs@att.net.

April Meeting:

Meeting will be held in the Clinton Public Library 118 South Hicks St. Clinton; Thursday 4/26/2001 at 7:00 p.m.

Speaker:

Guest Speaker for this meeting will be William "Dewey" Beard. He will be speaking on "How to find Your Civil War Ancestors." This will be a fun workshop for everyone with an interest in finding their ancestor's Civil War ties-- whether Union or Confederate." Mr Beard is a local Civil War expert and regularly presents this workshop to genealogists of all levels.

Membership Dues:

Membership dues are now due for the year 2001. We operate on a calendar year basis, so they are due 1/1/2001.

If you have not paid please do so. Your regular membership (individual or family) is only $16.00. The sustaining membership is $25.00 and is used to support the efforts of the PGHS.

Pellissippiian:

We still have a need for some one that is willing to serve as one of the Journal Editors for this year to step forward. This is a very important job and is one that needs to be filled before time runs out for the next Journal to be put together.

Upcoming Altum Reunion:

7th Annual Altum Family Reunion Saturday June 30, 2001 Summerfield, North Carolina.

New Book:

The latest information on the new "Pictorial History" book is that it will be delivered around May 15, 2001.

The Annual Workshop:

The annual workshop for 2001 is set for May 19, 2001 at the Clinton High School cafeteria. Please bring your specialty snack foods for that event. If you have any questions you can contact Barbara Kesterson. The theme for the May workshop is "Past and Future." Please make plans now to attend this event.

Due to the workshop being held in May, there will not be a regular meeting for the month of May. However, we will try to get another News Letter out before the workshop with more details about the activities.

Training For PGHS Members:

Virtual University has released the Spring Calendar of Classes. Courses of interest for PGHS members are;

"Basic American Genealogy" and "HTML 1: Web Page Design for Beginners" Courses are offered on the Internet only. View the online Catalog at <http://www.vu.org/calender.html>. This information has been prompted from the response we received from the members that have agreed to receive their News Letter by email.
