September 2001

Welcome to the Pellissippi Genealogical & Historical Society e-newsletter. If you have received this newsletter in error, or if you are receiving 2 copies, please email me at pghs@att.net

September Meeting:

Meeting will be held in the Clinton Public Library 118 South Hicks St. Clinton; Thursday 9/27/2001 at 7:00 p.m.

Speaker:

Our guest speaker will be Jack Goins/Goans (?). Jack will be speaking about the olive-skin, blue-eyed mountain people known as Melungeons. This has always been an interesting subject to me and I think you will enjoy it as well.

New Members:

Bettie Bird (Spouse) James Bird

59 N. Skyflower Ct.

Spring, TX 77381

Searching for: Slover, Roberts, and Wyatt of Anderson County, Tennessee

Library News:

The Library has many good books and references that may hold the answer to the road block that you are facing. They receive new material most every month from other parts of the country. If you have checked any of these books out; we ask that you please return them when you have finished, as someone else may want to use them for their search as well.

Anderson County Celebration:

On October 13 there will be a big gathering in the city of Clinton to celebrate the Birth of Anderson County. Anderson County will be 200 years old in 2001.

There will be games; face painting; antiques cars as well as other types of antiques; old pictures; foods; and lots of places to meet and renew friendship with someone that may have been in the area long ago, and have returned just to help celebrate this special event. Market Street will be blocked for these and other activities. This event is being put together by the Anderson County Chamber Of Commerce, plus other special groups through out the county.

Museum Of Appalachia Work Schedule:

Following is a copy of the work schedule for the Museum of Appalachia starting A. M. October 11, 2001.

This list has been put together by Robert Marlowe and if you have not been scheduled or asked to work, you may check with him. He may have a spot for you.
