

Pellissippi Genealogical & Historical Society

<http://pghs.home.att.net>

VOLUME 24

ISSUE 2

February 2002

Welcome to the Pellissippi Genealogical & Historical Society e-newsletter. If you have received this newsletter in error, or if you are receiving 2 copies, please email me at pghs@att.net

February Meeting.

The February meeting will be held in the Clinton Public Library, 118 S. Hicks St., Clinton, on Thursday, Feb. 28, at 7:00 p.m.

Speaker

The speaker for this month will be local author Carolyn Canterbury, who will discuss her recent murder mystery, Who Killed Senator Goddard? published by Sterling House. This story is set in Knoxville and incorporates many local and cultural references. Ms. Canterbury is a retired school administrator, known locally as Joan Ellis, now Joan Gibson. She has won national recognition for her writing, including the MENSA short story award. This promises to be an interesting and enjoyable program, so please plan to attend.

Board of Directors Meeting at 6:30 p.m.

The board of directors will meet at 6:30 p.m., prior to the regular meeting. All board members are asked to attend, as we will be discussing plans for the spring workshop. Please be thinking about topics, speakers, etc., for this important project. Any members with ideas for the workshop are also welcome.

Membership Dues.

It's that time again! If you haven't already sent in your check, please remember to do so.

Library News.

Mary Harris has donated a copy of her book, Cemeteries of Marion County, TN, to our library. It, along with other interesting books, society journals, census records, etc., may be checked out by our members.

The Pellippian.

As always, Charles Abner is requesting material for the Journal, so search through your files and see what you have that might be of interest. Family photos and history, Bible records, oral histories—all are needed—and don't forget the all-important query. Remember that The Pellissippian goes not only to our members all over the country, but to libraries and other societies, as well. You may send material to Charles via email at: ABNERC799@aol.com

It may also be sent on disk or in clean, scannable hard copy. Mail to: PGHS, Attn. Journal Editor, 118 S. Hicks St., Clinton, TN 37716-2826.

This information has been prompted from the response we received from the members that have agreed to receive their newsletter by email.